QUALITY & ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY

The Director's recognises the benefits of operating the business to ensure that it complies with and fully embraces the spirit of the requirements of ISO 9001 and ISO 14001 through a fully documented management system.

Taskmasters Resources Ltd is committed to reducing the aspects of its business that have an impact on the environment by avoiding the creation of waste and mitigating the risk of negative effects on the environment.

This commitment extends from the Director's to all members of the workforce whose personal development shall be supported and shall be subject to internal and external audit at regular intervals to ensure a culture of continual improvement through the setting of targets and objectives which support the implementation of this policy aimed at improving environmental and quality performance.

The organisation will also ensure:

- Compliance with all, legal and statutory requirements
- Awareness of our responsibilities towards to environment
- Awareness of our moral and professional responsibilities
- Awareness and commitment to the prevention of pollution
- Awareness to follow defined procedures and processes and to report any deviation or anomalies

The above will provide a framework to enable us to maintain a structured and consistent approach to business, to establish business objectives, maximise internal efficiency and maintain through its adoption, the very highest standards of customer care possible.

The organisation complies with and seeks to exceed the requirements of the Health and Safety at Work Act: 1974.

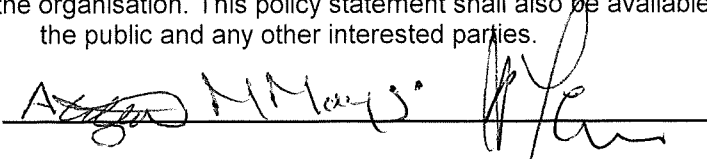

It is the Director's belief that in adopting the procedures implicit within these standards, it will enable us to increase the organisation's operating efficiency, minimise wastage and hence improve profitability, whilst maintaining and continuously improving the effectiveness of the Environmental and Quality Management System and levels of customer satisfaction.

The Director's will invest in training as and when required to promote the development and knowledge of its employees who are regarded as a key asset to the organisation.

Our aim is to always achieve total customer satisfaction with the services we offer so customers continue to choose us as their preferred supplier and also confidently recommend our organisation to other potential customers.

This policy statement is to be reviewed for continuing suitability and shall be communicated to, understood and followed by all personnel at all levels employed by the organisation. This policy statement shall also be available to the public and any other interested parties.
